Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Lyle McCord, born and raised in Aurora County, South Dakota, has dedicated 20 years to the safety, health, and welfare of the residents of Aurora County and to the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, On March 1, 1988, Lyle was sworn in as deputy sheriff of Aurora County; and,

Whereas, Lyle has given up time he could have spent with his family and friends and has missed many meals, special occasions and sleep, in order to help someone in need or to do a job that requires the instinct, temperament, and skills necessary to work day after day and sometimes into the night; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper for the Governor of the state of South Dakota to recognize the contributions Lyle has made to improve the quality of life in Aurora County:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 15, 2008, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of October in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eight.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
